DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments provided in pages 6-16 of the Appeal Brief, filed 7/5/05, with respect to the rejections of claims 1-22 as recited in the Final Office action mailed 1/28/05 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejections of claims 1-22 have been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-22 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's arguments, see pages 6-16 of the Appeal Brief, have clearly pointed out the patentable novelty features and the differences between the claimed invention and the closest prior art of record, the Paloniemi et al. reference (US Publication No. 2001/0017934) and the Gordon et al reference (U.S. Patent No. 6,057,540). Specifically, the instant independent claims 1 and 5 require two separate and distinct movements for highlighting and selecting a menu item (18A-C), wherein an amount and direction of a first relative movement is used to generate a first set of movement data to highlight a menu item, and an amount and direction of a second relative movement is used to generate a second set of movement data to select the highlighted menu item; and the instant independent claims 11, 14, and 18 require: storing movement pattern data representing a first pattern of relative movement between the portable electronic device (10A) and an image surface (22), generating a first set of motion data based on the sensed relative movement, and identifying a user based on the comparison of first set of motion data to the stored movement pattern data; whereas, the closest prior art requires a comparison of the image of a user's fingertip swiped over the fingerprint sensor 5 with a stored image of the user's fingerprint for user identification (see Paloniemi et al reference, Figs. 3a and 5, and paragraph 0032), and which does not teach or suggest the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
